8. Indigenous Peoples' Commission

8.1 The Indigenous Peoples' Commission is one of the four Rights Commissions established by article 212G of the Constitution. Its primary function as stated in Article 212T is to:

- (b) three persons, at least one being a women nominated by the Tshaos Council and two persons, including one woman nominated by Amerindian Organisations determined by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all elected members of the National Assembly; and

- (c) a member who shall be a nominee, without the right to vote, chosen by and from each of the following Commissions: the Human Rights Commission, Ethnic Relations Commission, Women and Gender Equality Commission and Rights of the Child Commission.

10. Process of identifying entities

10.1 On January 13, 2016, at its 3rd meeting, the Committee agreed to invite the National Tousehaos Council, as well as to identify and invite the five (5) Amerindian Organisations to make nominations namely, the National Amerindian Development Foundation (NADF), the Amerindian Action Movement of Guyana (TAAMOG), the Guyana Organisation of Indigenous Peoples (GOIP), Amerindian Peoples Association, and North Rupununi (NRDDB).

10.2 At the 19th Meeting held on the March 22, 2017, the Committee noted that five (5) organisations were written to and four (4) of the five (5) organisations, with the exception of the North Rupununi (NRDDB), submitted responses.

At the meeting, the Committee accepted the nominations received from the four (4) organisations in keeping with Article 212 S (2) (b) which provided for two (2) nominations from these bodies, as follows:

- (i) Ms. Jean Benedicta Imelda La Rose; and
- (ii) Andrew Collin Klautky.

10.3 At the same meeting, it was also noted that the National Tousehaos Council held its bi-annual conference on Friday, August, 26, 2016, and had elected a nominee. Subsequently, the names of three (3) nominees were submitted to the Committee on March, 17, 2017, namely:

- (i) Tousehao Yusa Xavier;
- (ii) Tousehao Joel Fredericks; and
- (iii) Tousehao Lenox Shuman.

10.4 The Committee, as provided under Article 212S (2) (a) considered the following proposed entities to submit nominees:

- (i) Ministry of Indigenous Peoples' Affairs;
- (ii) Ministry of Public Health;
- (iii) Ministry of Social Protection;
- (iv) Private Sector Commission; and
- (v) Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

10.5 At the 21st Meeting of the Committee held on April, 21, 2017, Members were of the view that entities to be identified should be done considering that there was a balance in the Membership of Government and Non-Governmental Organisations and there should not be more than ten (10) members.

10.6 The list was further broadened with proposals for the following entities to be considered:

- Justice Institute of Guyana
- The Women Miners Association;
- Forest Product Association;
- Guyana Gold and Diamond Miners Association;
- Guyana Human Rights Association;
- The Guyana Bar Association;
- Christian Community.

10.7 At its 22nd Meeting held on May 10, 2017, Members shared differing views with respect to the Justice Institute of Guyana being an entity to be consulted to submit a nominee. The Committee agreed to the following:

- to write the Justice Institute of Guyana to verify whether the Organisation was functioning (bon fide certificates);
- to write the University of Guyana requesting the appropriate faculty to be consulted to submit a nominee to the IPC;
- to include the National Agricultural Research and Extension Institute (NAREI) and the Christian Bodies; and
- to write the Christian bodies from the list of entities for the Ethnic Relations Commission, inviting representatives by June 9, 2017.

10.8 At its 23rd Meeting held on June 7, 2017, the Committee noted that correspondence was received from Ms. Melinda Jankie of the Justice Institute of Guyana with respect to the functioning of the Justice Institute of Guyana. However, the Committee felt that further information was needed on the bona fides of the organisation.

10.9 The Committee also noted that before consultation could be done with the Christian bodies, the accepted list of entities would require the approval of two-thirds of the National Assembly. As a result, the entities were not consulted as was agreed to at the meeting, since the list of entities had to be finalised by the Committee before consultation could begin.

10.10 The Committee agreed that the following entities should be written to, requesting them to provide the bona fides of the organisation (criteria):

- Women Miners Association;
- Guyana Gold and Diamond Miners Association;
- Guyana Human Rights Association;
- Justice Institute of Guyana ; and
- Forestry Products Association.

10.11 At its 25th Meeting held on June 19, 2017, the Committee recalled the following entities that were written to verify that their Organisation was functioning:

- Justice Institute of Guyana;
- Women Miners Association;
- Guyana Gold and Diamond Miners Association;
- Forest Products Association;
- Guyana Human Rights Association; and
- University of Guyana.

10.12 The Committee recognised that responses were received from the following:

- Forest Products Association,
- Guyana Gold and Diamond Miners Association; and
- Women Miners Association.

10.13 Response from the Justice Institute of Guyana, Guyana Human Rights Association and the University of Guyana were still outstanding despite follow up calls.

10.14 Ms. Teixeira on behalf of the Members of the Opposition proposed the following list of entities be short listed to be consulted to submit nominees for the IPC:

- (i) Ministry of Indigenous Peoples' Affairs;
- (ii) Ministry of Public Health;
- (iii) Ministry of Social Protection;
- (iv) Private Sector Commission;
- (v) Environmental Protection Agency;
- (vi) Bar Association of Guyana;
- (vii) Guyana Gold and Diamond Miners Association;
- (viii) Forest Products Association;

(ix) Christian Community; and

(x) National Agricultural Research and Extension Institute (NAREI) or the University of Guyana.

10.15 The Hon. David Patterson, on behalf of Members of the Government, indicated that the proposed list of entities to be consulted for the IPC would be submitted at the next meeting of the Committee which was scheduled for November 15, 2017.

10.16 At the 26th Meeting held on November 15, 2017, the Hon. Amna Ally proposed that the Inter-Religious Organisation (IRO) should be a body to be consulted instead of the Christian Bodies which fell under the Ethnic Relations Commission (ERC); since the majority of Indigenous people may not be Christians.

10.17 The Chairperson suggested that since the University of Guyana failed to respond to the Committee's requests for nominations to the Indigenous Peoples' Commission, that the National Agricultural Research Extension Institute (NAREI) should be consulted instead.

10.18 The Hon. David Patterson proposed and Members agreed that the following list of entities be short listed to submit nominees for the IPC:

- (i) Ministry of Indigenous Peoples' Affairs;
- (ii) Ministry of Public Health;
- (iii) Ministry of Social Protection;
- (iv) Private Sector Commission;
- (v) Environmental Protection Agency;
- (vi) Bar Association of Guyana;
- (vii) Guyana Gold and Diamond Miners Association;
- (viii) Forest Products Association;
- (ix) Inter-Religious Organisation; and
- (x) National Agricultural Research and Extension Institute (NAREI)

10.19 Members present at the meeting held on November 15, 2017, agreed that the Committee would await Members of the Opposition acceptance of the proposed list of entities to be consulted for the IPC before proceeding further.

10.20 At the 27th Meeting of the Committee held January 31, 2018, Members present unanimously agreed that the above mentioned ten (10) entities should be consulted to nominate members to the Indigenous Peoples' Commission.

10.21 The Committee, thereafter, agreed that the Report and Motion should be presented to the National Assembly for its approval.

10.22 The report and motion are accordingly, hereby submitted for consideration and adoption by the National Assembly.
