ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

1. Short title
2. Amendment of the Principal Act.
AN ACT to amend the Guyana Rice Board Act to empower the Guyana Rice Board to establish Regional Rice Boards and to assign them certain functions of the Board in order to decentralize its function and to provide for matters connected therewith.

Enacted by the Parliament of Guyana:—

1. This Act, which amends the Guyana Rice Board Act, may be cited as the Guyana Rice Board (Amendment) Act 1982.

2. (1) The Principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) in section 23 (3), by the substitution for the words “1st October in each year and ending on the 30th September in the year following” of the words “1st January in each year”;

(b) in section 24 (2), by the substitution for the words “31st December” and “30th September” of the words “30th April” and “31st December” respectively;

(c) by the insertion of the following heading immediately after section 24 —

“REGIONAL RICE BOARDS”; and

(d) by the insertion of the following sections as sections 24A to 24H immediately after the heading inserted by paragraph (c) —

24A. (1). The Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, may establish in each region a Regional Rice Board. A Regional Rice Board shall consist of —

(a) not less than five persons appointed by the Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, from among persons appearing to the Board to be qualified for appointment as being bona fide rice farmers: and
(b) not more than five other persons appointed by the Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, from among persons appearing to the Board to be qualified for appointment as having had experience in matters relating to production, manufacture and marketing of rice or to agriculture, industry, the co-operative movement, local government, administration or commerce.

(2) The Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, may appoint any member of the Board qualified for appointment under subsection (1) as a member of a Regional Rice Board.

(3) The Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, shall appoint any member of a Regional Rice Board as Chairman of the Regional Rice Board of which he is a member.

(4) Each such Regional Rice Board shall be assigned such name as the Board may determine and shall have its headquarters in the Board's main office in the region.

(5) The Chairman of a Regional Rice Board, shall be paid such, if any, remuneration and allowances as the Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, may determine. The other members of a Regional Rice Board shall be paid such, if any, allowances as the Board, acting after consultation with the Minister, may determine.

(6) A member of a Regional Rice Board may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman of the Board.

(7) In this section --

"Minister" means the person assigned under article 107 of the Constitution with responsibility for agriculture by the President; and

"region" means any of the regions into which Guyana has been divided under section 4 of the Local Democratic Organs Act 1980.
24B. A Regional Rice Board shall be subject to the directions and control of the Board. A Regional Rice Board shall within the area for which it is established, manage such business of the Board under this Act and may, in the name and on behalf of the Board, exercise, perform and discharge such powers, duties, and functions of the Board under this Act as may in writing be assigned to it by the Board.

24C. A Regional Rice Board shall cause to be kept proper minutes of its acts and proceedings.

24D. (1) A meeting of a Regional Rice Board shall be held on a convenient date in alternate weeks in every month in each year and at such other times as may be necessary.

(2) Six members of a Regional Rice Board present at any meeting, of whom at least two shall be members appointed under paragraph (a) and two under paragraph (b) of section 24A (1), shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(3) A member of a Regional Rice Board shall not take part in or vote on the decision of any matter with respect to any transaction between the Regional Rice Board and himself or between the Regional Rice Board and any person in whose business he is pecuniarily interested whether directly or indirectly.

(4) Subject to this section a Regional Rice Board has power to regulate its own proceedings.

24E. The Board shall assign to a Regional Rice Board a secretary and such officers and employees as the Board deem necessary to enable the Regional Rice Board to carry out its functions effectively.

24F. The Board shall place at the disposal of a Regional Rice Board such amounts as may be necessary to meet capital and revenue expenditure.
24G. Section 10, as it applies to a member or officer of the Board, shall mutatis mutandis apply to a member of, or officer assigned by the Board to, a Regional Rice Board.

24H. (1) A Regional Rice Board shall keep such books and accounts as are necessary for the purpose of the business assigned to it by the Board.

(2) A Regional Rice Board shall on or before the 31st March in each year transmit to the Board a report of its transactions to the 31st December next preceding together with a balance sheet and a full statement of income and expenditure for the accounting period ending on 31st December next preceding audited by an auditor approved by the Board.

(3) The ascertained profits of any accounting period in which there is an excess of income over expenditure shall be transferred to the general reserve fund.

(4) The accounting period shall be the period of twelve months ending on the 31st December in each year.”.

(2) The amendments made by subsection (1) (a) and (b) to the Principal Act shall come into operation with effect from 1st January, 1983.

Passed by the National Assembly on 1982—11—17.

F. A. Narain,
Clerk of the National Assembly.
