Explanatory Memorandum

This Bill seeks to amend the National Registration Act, Cap. 19:08.

Clause 2 of the Bill provides for the provisions of the Principal Act specified in the first column of the Schedule to the Bill to be amended in the manner specified in the corresponding entry in the second column.

Section 2 of the Principal Act, which is the interpretation section, is amended by substituting the definition of “qualifying date”. The qualifying date is the date specified in section 6(1A)(a) or (b), and it is the date with reference to which a person shall be registered.

Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended to insert a new paragraph (aA) to subsection (3) which provides that the Commissioner shall be responsible to the Elections Commission for the preparation, issuance and distribution of identification cards. New subsection (3A) is section 18 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000, No. 15 of 2000, amended to provide that the Commissioner shall notwithstanding anything in any written law be subject to the direction and control of the Commission.

Section 4(1) is consequentially amended to reflect the new reference of section 17 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000 which has been inserted in the Representation of the People Act as section 4B.

Section 6 is amended to provide in subsection (1) and new subsection (1A) for continuous registration to be done in two periods, during the months of January and May with the qualifying date being 30th June, and during the months of July to November with the qualifying date being 31st December.

Subsection (2) is amended to provide that persons in Guyana of the age of 14 years and over who are entitled to register under subsection (1)(b), shall be persons who are citizens of Guyana, or persons who are commonwealth citizens who are not citizens of Guyana and who are domiciled and resident in Guyana and have been so resident for a period of one year immediately preceding the qualifying date.

Subsection (3) is consequentially deleted.

Subsection (4) is amended to remove references to residency and house to house registration. The Commission shall establish offices in registration districts at which registration officers shall receive the application for registration of every person eligible to register, with an address at the date of application in a registration division in that district, for the purpose of including his name and other relevant particulars in the central register.

New subsection (4A) provides that where a person is unable to attend the office due to physical incapacity, the registration officer may on the approval of the Commissioner, visit the address of the place where the person is located and accept his application for registration.

New subsection (4B) provides that for the purpose of verification of the address claimed by a first time registrant or an existing registrant who applies to change or correct his address, a registration officer or an authorised officer shall visit the address claimed. On successful verification of the address the application shall be granted.

Subsections (6) and (7) which provide that it is an offence for a person who refuses to make application for himself or his child to register, and empower the Court's to order the person to apply for registration, are deleted.

Subsection (6A) provides for the Commission to continue to use the official list of electors in force at the commencement of this section, created from the 2001 general and regional elections as its base.

New subsection (6B) provides that if for any reason whatsoever or due to any unforeseen circumstances, there is a cessation of continuous registration the official list of electors for the last general and regional elections or the last preliminary list of electors, whichever is later in time, immediately preceding the cessation, shall be the base from which to continue the continuous registration as provided for under this Act.

The Principal Act is amended to insert new sections 8A, 8B and 8C which concern cancellation of registration of persons who are dead. Section 8A provides for the Registrar General of Births and Deaths to send to the Commissioner once every month a list of all persons fourteen years or more whose deaths have been registered in the preceding month. The Commissioner shall cancel the registration of any person from the central and divisional registers whose name is on the list.

The Commissioner shall send to the Commission a quarterly report of the registrations that have been cancelled under this section.

Section 8B provides for a list of all persons fourteen years and more that have been reported to or recorded by police stations or police outposts and hospitals and health centres to be sent to the Commissioner once every four months.

Section 8C provides for the names of persons registered in a division that are on a list of dead persons sent to the Commissioner under section 8B to be subject to the claims and objections process, and if necessary, there shall be a visit to the address of the person in the registration record by registration officers and scrutineers to verify any information on the death of that person from persons living at that address. The Commissioner shall cancel the registration of a person if he is satisfied from information received from the claims and objections process or the visit, that the person is dead and shall report to the Commission on the registrations cancelled.

Section 9 is amended to remove the reference to house to house registration and residency.

Section 11(2) is substituted with an offence. A person who wilfully and with intention to deceive applies to be registered in more than one divisional register or more than once in any register commits an offence.

Section 12 is amended by deleting the words giving power to the Commissioner to issue identification cards in such manner as he thinks fit. The existing provision of section 12 has become subsection (1), and four new subsections are inserted. Subsections (2) and (5) have been brought over from section 9 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000. Subsections (3) and (4) provide for the preparation, issuance and distribution of national identification cards to be continuous and for their distribution in every registration office.

Section 13 is amended to increase the fine for committing the offence of failing to furnish certain information to the Commissioner or any authorised officer from sixteen thousand two hundred and fifty dollars to one hundred thousand dollars.

New section 13A creates the offence of submission of false information for the purpose of registration. The penalty on summary conviction of the offence is a fine of five hundred thousand dollars and imprisonment for five years.

Section 14 is amended to provide for the preparation of a preliminary list after each period of continuous registration under section 6.

Section 15 is consequentially amended to make reference to sections which provide for the preliminary lists.

Section 16 is amended to insert a new subsection (3) which is section 19 of the Elections Laws (Amendments) Act 2000, amended to keep the provisions relevant to this Act. Subsection (3) provides for the power of the Commission to supervise the functioning of the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner to include the power to issue directions to the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner in respect of their employment of any person in relation to the registration of electors.

Section 19 is amended by the deletion of paragraph (g) and the provision of an increase in the maximum penalty in subsection (2) that may be prescribed by regulations for the breach of any regulation.

New section 19B is section 22 of the Elections Laws (Amendments) Act 2000, amended to remove the irrelevant references. Section 19B provides for the removal of difficulties in connection with the application of the Act and any relevant subsidiary legislation.

Sections 20 to 25 have been amended to increase penalties for the offences committed under those sections.

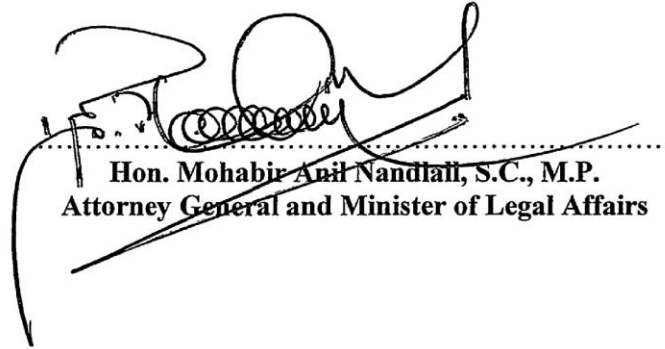

New section 25A provides for other offences in relation to identification cards.

Sections 26 and 27 have been amended to increase penalties for offences committed under those sections.

New section 27A provides for a general penalty for contravention of any provision of the Principal Act where a penalty has not been provided.

Clause 3 provides for the provisions of any Regulations inconsistent with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act to be revoked.

Clause 4 provides for the repeal of certain sections of the Elections Laws (Amendments) Act 2000.
