Explanatory Memorandum

This Bill seeks to amend the Representation of the People Act, Cap. 1:03.

Clause 2 of the Bill provides for the provisions of the Principal Act specified in the first column of the Schedule to the Bill to be amended in the manner specified in the corresponding entry in the second column.

Section 2, which is the interpretation section of the Principal Act, is amended to insert certain new definitions of new terms to be used in the Act. The section is amended to extend the definition of “election officer” to include “a supernumerary returning officer” and “a deputy supernumerary returning officer”. Section 2 is also amended by the insertion of definitions for the terms “polling place”, “sub-district” and “supernumerary returning officer”.

The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of new sections 4A, 4B, 4C, 4D and 4E, which include sections 16, 17, 21, 11 and 20, respectively, of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000, No. 15 of 2000, being brought over to this Act in pursuance of consolidation and ease of reference of election laws. These provisions provide for additional functions of the Commission.

Section 6 of the Principal Act is amended to provide for every village or locality to have such number of polling places necessary to accommodate the electors of that village or locality. The Chief Election Officer may rent a private building unconnected with a political party or politician within a division where there is no public building available, and appoint it as a polling place. The Act currently makes reference to polling stations in many instances and contemplates the operation of the polling stations as though they are polling places. The amendment to section 6 also expressly provides for the division of polling places into polling stations and the assignment of election officers and agents to polling stations. Factors are provided for consideration when determining whether to divide a polling place into polling stations.

The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of a new section 6A which provides for the division of polling districts Region No. 3, Region No. 4 and Region No. 6. District Region No. 3 shall be divided into 3 sub-districts, Region No. 4, into 4 sub-districts and Region No. 6 into 3 sub-districts. Each polling sub-district of a polling district shall be defined by such number of the total number of polling divisions which constitute the district as the Commission determines by Order.

Section 7 is amended to provide for the existing provision to be subsection (1) and to insert a new subsection (2). In subsection (1), as so amended, new paragraph (ba) is inserted to provide for each sub-district to have a supernumerary returning officer and an election clerk, and in paragraph (d) provision is made for the appointment of deputy supernumerary returning officers as may be necessary. New subsection (2) provides for polling day staff to be randomly placed at polling stations within the polling district or polling sub-district in which their names are listed in the official list of electors.

New sections 7A and 7B are sections 18 and 19 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000 with consequential modifications. Sections 7A and 7B provide for the Chief Election Officer to be subject to the direction and control of the Commission, and an election officer to be supervised by the Commission.

New section 11D is section 13 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000. This section identifies provisions of the Principal Act that shall apply with any necessary modifications, adaptations, qualifications and exceptions in relation to elections for geographical constituencies as they apply in relation to elections.

Section 24 has several amendments to provide substantively and consequentially in subsections (1), (2), (3) (4) and (6) for a sub-district to have the same number of assistant agents and counting agents appointed by the election agent for a district and for the appointment of a polling agent and an alternate polling agent for each polling place and polling station.

Section 24 is also amended by the insertion of new subsections (7), (8) and (9). Subsection (7) provides that election agents may appoint additional assistant agents to be counterparts of deputy returning officers appointed to perform certain duties assigned to them. The returning officer shall notify the election agent of the number of deputy returning officers that will be appointed and the duties to be performed by the deputies at least 21 days before Election Day so that the election agent can appoint the counterpart assistant agents. The assistant agents who will be counterparts to the Deputy returning officers shall be provided with accommodation and facilities for them to carry out their functions of monitoring and scrutinising the work of the deputy returning officers.

Subsection (8) provides for alternate polling agents to take the place of a polling agent who is for any reason unable to perform his duties, until the polling agent resumes. Subsection (9) provides that it is an offence for a person to obstruct an assistant agent or an alternate polling agent in the performance of his functions. A person who commits this offence is liable to a fine of five million dollars and to imprisonment for ten years.

Section 25(1) is amended by the insertion of the word “sub-district” after the word “district”, wherever the word “district” appears.

Section 29(4) is amended to give a person who may vote at a polling place where he is employed for a purpose connected with election other than the polling place where his name is displayed, two days before Election Day instead of one to obtain the certificate of the rerunning officer authorising his voting at the other place.

Section 31 is amended to extend the time period for sending an application for appointment of a proxy from not later than the 10th day before election day to not later than the 21st day. It also is amended to insert a new subsection (2) which provides that the returning officer shall cause to be affixed to one building in each division of his district a list of the names of the applicants and the electors to vote as proxies on behalf of the applicants, and further published in the media to bring the contents of the list to the attention of the public for persons to make objections.

The Principal Act is amended to insert a new Part IVA consisting of new sections 33A, 33B, 33C and 33D which include sections 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000. These sections provide for the preparation of the official list of electors. Section 33C provides for a revision of the official list of electors after an interval of three months but not exceeding six months after the qualifying date with respect to which the list was prepared. The interval was under section 7 of the ELA 2000 more than six months after that qualifying date.

Section 34(1) is amended to provide that not later than the 30th day before election day, the returning officer shall complete sending of the list of polling places to the election agents for any comments, giving them 7 days to respond and addressing any concern. Notice of poll shall be given not later than the 21st day before Election Day instead of the 20th day.

Section 35 is amended to specify that a returning officer when apportioning the entries in the official list of electors of a division between polling places in the division he shall allot to each polling place, as far as possible, entries comprising electors whose registered addresses are within a reasonable distance to the polling place.

Section 40(1) is amended to insert a new paragraph (k) which provides that a sufficient number of copies of registration records shall be supplied by the returning officer to every presiding officer in his district.

Section 65J(2) is amended consequently to provide for “sub-district” as it does for “district” in the provision dealing with list of electors entitled to vote.

Section 65K is amended by the insertion of new subsection (6A) which provides that where a person has exercised his right to ballot as a member of the disciplined force under Part VIIB of the Act, the name of that person shall be struck through with a conspicuous electronic line on the official list of electors at the polling place in the district where the person was entitled to vote on elections day; and the Chief Election Officer shall certify the strike through of the name on the official list of electors before he places it in the ballot box for the polling place of the district where the person was entitled to vote.

The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of new section 68A which provides for the election materials and information which shall be given to polling agents by the presiding officer on the opening of poll, namely, a copy of the official list of electors containing the names of the electors entitled to vote at the polling place, a copy of the list of proxies, the number of Statements of Poll Forms 23A issued to the presiding officer, and a copy of the registration records of the electors. At the close of poll the copies of the lists of electors and lists of proxies shall remain the property of the polling agents.

Section 70 is amended by the insertion of three new subsections (3A), (3B) and (3C). Subsection (3A) provides that where an applicant for a ballot paper is without the prescribed identity paper or prescribed form of identification, a comparison must be made between the particulars recorded in the registration record including the identity picture in the record and the face and other particulars of the applicant before the oath of identity is administered. Subsections (3B) and (3C) provide for an offence for a presiding officer to allow an applicant to vote who is not eligible to vote.

Section 74 is amended to provide offences in relation to the use of tendered ballot papers.

Section 75 is amended to specify that a presiding officer, in the event of needing to be satisfied of the identity of any elector, may accept in lieu of the prescribed identity paper, a valid passport. The amendment also provides that the Commission shall publish by notice in the Gazette, newspaper, television or other media any other form of identification it has authorised for the purpose. A presiding officer commits an offence who refuses to accept from an elector, for consideration of the elector's identity, a form of identification prescribed or authorised.

Section 78A(1) is amended to insert a new paragraph (f) which adds an election agent, assistant agent, a polling agent, a counting agent or an election staff to the category of persons under which it is an offence to obstruct or otherwise interfere with in the exercise of their functions, and increases the penalty for the commission of the offence.

New section 78B provides for the offence of misleading an elector on the day of poll by providing misleading information or a misleading statement to the elector.

Section 79(1)(b) is amended to include counting agents as a category of persons not to be excluded from a polling place.

Section 81(2) is amended to delete references to "trains" in the Act.

Section 83 has several amendments. Added to the list of persons to whom tally sheets are distributed are counting agents.

It is also amended by the insertion of new subsections (1A) and (1B). Subsection (1A) provides that at every stage of the procedure on the close of poll set out in subsection (1), the presiding officer shall give every opportunity to the duly appointed candidate, counting agent and polling agent or alternate polling agent entitled to be present as attend to examine every ballot and information recorded, to verify or ascertain every count and to make objections or ask questions where necessary. The polling agent or alternate polling agent shall remain in the polling station throughout every procedure. The new subsection (1B) makes it an offence for a presiding officer to fail to comply with subsection (1A), and the offence carries a penalty of a fine of ten million dollars and imprisonment for ten years.

The amendment to subsection (9) adds to the procedure that a presiding officer shall follow upon the completion of count. The presiding officer shall give opportunity to the duly appointed candidates, counting agents and the polling agents or alternate polling agents present to ascertain the accuracy of the information recorded on the relevant Forms.

Subsection (9A) is amended to provide that the Presiding officer distribute to the assistant presiding officer, duly appointed candidates and counting agents, polling agents or alternate polling agents as are present, certified copies of the signed ballot paper account form, the statement of poll form and the statement of poll account form. It is an offence to remove a statement of poll posted outside the polling place and the offence attracts a penalty of ten million dollars and ten years imprisonment. Subsection (9B) makes it an offence for a presiding officer to deny a duly appointed candidate, counting agent, polling agent or alternate polling agent his right to ascertain the accuracy of the information recorded in the Forms and the offence attracts a penalty of a fine of five million dollars and imprisonment for five years.

An amendment to subsection (10) provides for the certified forms, which includes the statement of poll, required to be distributed to the Chief Election Officer and the Chairman of the Commission under section 83(9), to be placed in an envelope, sealed and delivered to the returning officer and supernumerary returning officer for immediate dispatch to the Chief Election Officer and Chairman.

Section 83A is amended to provide for the returning officer to provide other conveyance to carry polling agents and duly appointed candidates desirous of accompanying ballot boxes if the conveyance carrying the ballot boxes cannot accommodate all of them.

New section 83B provides for the returning officer and the supernumerary returning officer in the case of a sub-district on receipt of the statement of poll to post an electronic copy of it on the Commission's website to be publicly viewed. Failure to post a copy of the statement of poll or posting a copy that is not a true copy of the certified copy is an offence.

Section 84 has several amendments. Subsection (1) is amended to provide for the procedure set out in subsection (1B), to be followed in ascertaining the total votes cast in favour of each list in a district, except districts 3, 4 and 6 and the total votes cast in favour of each list in a sub-district. Subsection (1C) provides the procedure for ascertaining the total votes cast in favour of each list in districts 3, 4 and 6.

Subsection (1A) is amended to increase the number of persons who can inform the presiding officer of a material error on the Statement of Poll to include a duly appointed candidate, a counting agent and a polling agent. When a mistake on a statement of poll, discovered when the statement of poll is in the possession of the returning officer or supernumerary officer, is corrected, copies the corrected statement of Poll shall be sent to the Chief Election Officer and the Chairman of the Commission.

Subsection (1B) provides the procedure to be used for the ascertainment of the total votes cast in favour of each list in a district, except districts 3, 4 and 6 and in a sub-district of districts region, 3, 4 and 6. The procedure includes displaying, using an electronic mechanism, each Statement of Poll for the persons entitled to be present to see clearly the information on the Statement of Poll.

Subsection (1C) provides the procedure to be used to ascertain the total votes cast in favour of each list in districts 3, 4 and 6. This procedure involves the totalling of the total votes for each sub-district of districts 3, 4 and 6.

Subsection (2) is amended to make applicable the provisions of that subsection to districts, except districts 3, 4 and 6 and to sub-districts. Requests for recount under subsection (2) shall be submitted in writing by hand to the Returning Officer of the district or if the Returning Officer is unavailable, the Deputy Returning Officer shall receive and grant the request, or in the case of a subdistrict, if both the Returning Officer and the Deputy Returning Officer are unavailable, the supernumerary returning officer of the subdistrict shall receive and grant the request. Where all the persons required to receive and grant a request for recount are unavailable, the request may be submitted in writing by hand to the Chief Election Officer or the Chairman of the Commission who shall receive and grant the request.

Subsection (11) is amended to provide for the delivery to the Chief Election Officer of a certified copy of the District Tabulation Form and the Sub-District Tabulation Form from which each returning officer, including the returning officer of districts 3, 4, and 6 and each supernumerary returning officer have made their declaration of the total number of valid votes cast in the district or sub-district for each list of candidates.

Under new subsection (12), a certified copy of each Tabulation Form sent to the Chief Election Officer shall be given to the duly appointed candidates and the counting agents entitled to be present as attended the counts and the Chairman of the Commission. Subsection (13) provides for the Chief Election Officer to post on the Commission's website, an electronic copy of every District Tabulation Form and Sub-District Tabulation Form.

New subsections (14) through (20) provide for offences relating to contravention of section 84.

Section 86 is amended to extend the category of persons entitled to be present at the counting of the votes to include a supernumerary returning officer. Amendment also provides for the device and system used in proceedings to display statements of poll and tabulation forms to be in proper working condition and for persons entitled to be present to be given reasonable facilities to enable them to oversee the proceedings.

Sections 87, 88 and 89 are consequentially amended to provide for supernumerary returning officers similarly as are provided for returning officers under those sections. Section 89(3) is amended to also provide that the returning officer or supernumerary officer give to each counting agent a copy of the return in respect of the final count.

Section 96 is amended to provide in subsection (1) that the Chief Election Officer calculate the total number of valid votes of electors which have been cast for each list of candidates, on the basis of the information contained in the District Tabulation Forms received from the returning officers, including District Tabulation Forms from the returning officers of districts 3, 4 and 6.

Subsection (3) provides that the Chief Election Officer commit offences where he fails to calculate the total number of votes on the basis of information contained in the District Tabulation Forms; where he prepares the report which shall be the basis for the Commission to declare the election results with falsified information, or fails to prepare the report. The penalty for any of the offences is a fine of ten million dollars and imprisonment for ten years.

Section 97 is amended by the substitution for the word “fifty-three” of the words “sixty-five” the number by which the total number of votes cast for all the lists of candidates shall be divided.

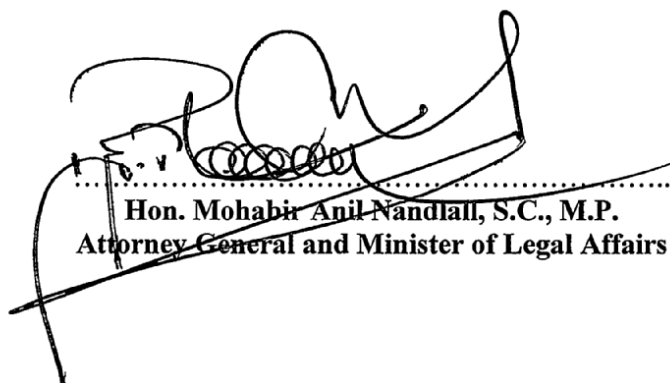

The Principal Act is amended by the insertion of a new section 139F which provides a general penalty provision for contraventions of the Act by stipulating that any person who contravenes any provision of this Act for which a penalty is not provided is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten million dollars and to imprisonment for ten years.

A new section 150B provides for an election manual to be posted on the Commission’s website and copies given to political parties within 30 days of the date of the President’s proclamation of the election date.

New section 153 is section 22 of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000 which provides for the Commission to have the power to remove any difficulty in connection with the application of the Principal Act.

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for the revocation of the provisions of any regulations inconsistent with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

Clause 4 of the Bill provides for the repeal of the Election Laws (Amendment) Act 2000 except sections 9, 18, 19 and 22 which shall be repealed on the coming into force of the National Registration (Amendment) Act 2022.
