EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Bill seeks to amend the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism Act, Cap 10:11, to update the Act to meet the best practice standards of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) and improve the abilities and powers of law enforcement in the fight against money laundering, terrorism financing and proliferation financing.

Clause 2 provides critical updates in the interpretation section to comply with definitions set by the FATF. The clause provides for identifying mechanisms with regard to persons and entities for designation with regard to the UNSCR Sanctions Regime. The new section 2 (2)A also indicates that when the order is made, the DPP will also make an application for a freezing or restraint order against the property of the person or entity. Notices regarding the order with regard to the Court shall be made public by the DPP.

Sections 22 and 23 have been updated to place an obligation on reporting entities to file any suspicious reports that may be linked to proliferation financing.

The amendments also provide a meaning for ‘privileged material’ as outlined in the Regional Security System Asset Recover Unit (RSS) Model Proceeds of Crime Bill (POCA-B), and specifies an exception to privileged material that namely, material held with the intention of furthering a criminal purpose is not privileged material.

Sections 68A and 68E have been amended to ensure that terrorist financing sanctions are applied without delay.

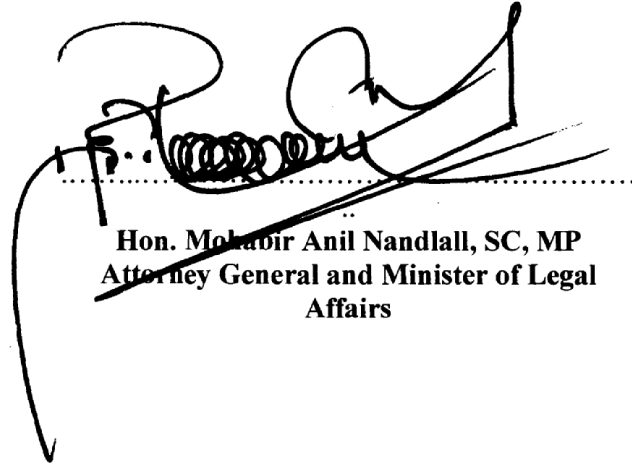

The Bill also inserts new sections 75A and 75B into the Act, which criminalise proliferation financing.

The amendments to section 76 also bolster the international corporation ability of Guyana and its competent authorities.

This Bill provides a new section 109A, which recognizes the Special Organised Crime Unit (SOCU) as the primary body within the Guyana Police Force dealing with the matters relating to money laundering, terrorist financing and proliferation financing.

The Guyana Compliance Commission is established under this Bill by a new section 110A, with its functions to be fully elaborated under the Guyana Compliance Commission Act 2023.

There are also consequential amendments to the Evidence Act, Combatting the Trafficking of Persons Act 2023, the Financial Institutions Act and the Foreign Exchange (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, Cap 86:01.
