

SIXTH PARLIAMENT OF GUYANA

FIRST SESSION (1992-1996)

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

RESOLUTION NO. 86

WHEREAS His Excellency President Cheddi Jagan has been tirelessly advocating for the reordering of developmental priorities globally and the introduction of principles of equity, justice and eco-justice in human and social development;

AND WHEREAS in pursuit thereof President Jagan has articulated a series of measures which the international financial institutions and the donor community need to urgently adopt, in a genuine Partnership between the countries of the North and the South;

AND WHEREAS these diverse views have been compiled in a manageable form and have been promulgated in the call for a New Global Human Order;

AND WHEREAS His Excellency's presentation has been the subject of various reviews and discussions the most noteworthy of which was the Conference on a New Global Human Order, which was convened in Georgetown, Guyana, from August 2-4 1996;

AND WHEREAS the deliberations and conclusions of that forum have been distilled into the Georgetown Declaration on a New Global Human Order (1996):

RESOLVED,

That the National Assembly endorses the Georgetown Declaration on a New Global Human Order.

Passed by the National Assembly on 28th October, 1996

F.A. NARAIN
Clerk of the National Assembly
